Remarks

Gorgeous, recently remodeled 3-bedroom, 2-bath home with a private study, located in the highly sought-after Punta Gorda Isles. Built in 2001, this beautifully updated residence features soaring ceilings, elegant crown molding, and an open, airy layout designed for both comfort and entertaining. Expansive zero-corner sliding glass doors flood the home with natural light and create a seamless connection between the main living areas and the outdoors. The bright, open kitchen is a standout, offering 42-inch cabinetry, solid surface countertops, a breakfast bar, and a large aquarium window that enhances natural light and provides tranquil water views. The thoughtful interior design blends functionality with coastal elegance, making this home ideal for everyday living or hosting guests. The spacious primary suite is a true retreat, featuring rich hardwood flooring and crown molding. The owners thoughtfully installed a dedicated mini-split system to provide additional cooling comfort during sleeping hours. The primary bath offers a spa-like experience with a walk-in shower and a relaxing soaking tub. Situated on a prime corner lot, the exterior of the property is equally impressive with a circular driveway and spacious 3-car garage. Step outside to your private waterfront oasis featuring an
